

Remarks from Jim Delgado on our Annual Narrative

Thank you for the timely submission of the Narrative Report. The report is comprehensive and well-written. It describes an active and diverse VAVS program with many successes and accomplishments. Statistical data shows increases in the numbers of adult and student volunteers from previous years. Although volunteer hours decreased from previous years, productivity remains at a very high level. An outstanding increase of over $1 million is noted in gifts and donations. Congratulations! Impressive calendar of successful projects/activities.

Report highlights of special interest to HQ:

- Corporate initiatives
- Voluntary Service website
- VAVS
- United Students for Veterans Health
- Veterans History Project
- Student Volunteer Program

Congratulations to the staff and volunteers for the many successes and accomplishments of the last year. Well done!
